STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY.

NORFOLK; VA., June 16.—Fully 3,500 fans saw Richmond and Portsmouth split even in a pair of pretty games, the scores being 2 to 1 in favor of the Colts and 5 to 2 in favor of the Truckers.

the Scores being a the Scores being a to 2 in favor of the Truckers.

"Lucky Dutch" Revelle was pitted against "Big" Foxen in the first game, and until the ninth it was every inch a hotly-contested pitchers' battle with bonors about even.

Hamilton and Walker were the opposing slash artists in the second contest, and for seven innings fought out even a prettler battle than that in the first game. But luck broke against (Walker, and by a couple of clean hits, two bunts beat out, and a sacrifice on which the squeeze play was successfully, pulled off in connection with an infield out, the Truckers scored four runs and won the game in the eighth inning.

During the first five innings Hamilton let the Champs down without anything that even looked like a scratch, ut in the sixth he passed the first an and allowed a bunch of hits. The core:

SHOEMAKERS PLAY THREE GAMES HERE

'Al Orth's Team Makes Its Second Visit to Richmond To-Day.

The Champions return home from Portsmouth this morning to play a series of three games with the Lynch-burg Shoemakers. This, will be the second visit of Al Orth's team here this season, and while it is bringing up the rear in the penpant race, this team will not prove any easy picking for the Champs. Since their last visit here the Shoemakers have been strengthened, and have improved in their work, and the Colts will have to exert themselves in order to win. Although the Champions and the Truckers divided a double-header yesterday. Richmond is not very far from the top of the pile—just one-half of one game. The Tars very accommodatingly licked the Red Sox yesterday and set them back a few points.

The showing made by the Colts in Portsmouth was poor indeed. One game won and three lost in a series of four is not quite as good as was expected. "Dutch" Reveile was the only one of the four pitchers to get by with his game, and this is the twelfth that "Dutch" has won this season. Ha is leading the Virginia League twirlors in games won. The Champions return home from

PENNANT BLEW AWAY

CHICAGO, June 16.—Chicago's second world's championship pennant was holsted to-day after a parade of both teams, headed by a brass band. Just before reaching the top of the high pole, however, the rope pulley broke, and the emblem blew away back of the bleachers in centre field. Ignoring the cvil omen, Chicago went in and won the game by tunching four hits in the second innins. Reulbach was hit harder than Rucker, but kept Brooksiyn's safeties well scattered. Score:
